* An active user is a person who actually logs into your platform- subsequent login from an active user will not count towards your user limit. Each billing cycle resets your monthly active user quota.

 You will be charged an overage fee for every additional user over your limit, unless you choose to upgrade. If you upgrade to a plan that allows for the number of users that have logged in before your bill is due, you will not be charged the overage fee.

 Technical support via email with a response time of up to 24 hours.

* Dedicated personnel for Technical support via WebEx, email or phone for an immediate response in your predefined custom time.
