1 Introduction

This document explains how to achieve the following requirement:

- Ability to have a final submission button at the end of the test. (ensures the candidate has completed all testing requirements and alleviates the chance of a candidate not getting credit due to lack of a test section (if a multiple-section exam).

2 Candidate's perspective

When the candidate takes the test with sections, they will have two buttons available:

1. Finish section.
2. Finish test.

By clicking on either of these two buttons, the candidate will receive a confirmation dialogue with information on unanswered questions.

If the candidate clicks on the Finish section button, the following dialog will appear:

If the candidate clicks on the Finish test button, the following dialog will appear:
