1 Introduction

This document represents an iterative plan of improvements for the question changelog functionality.

2 Current Implementation

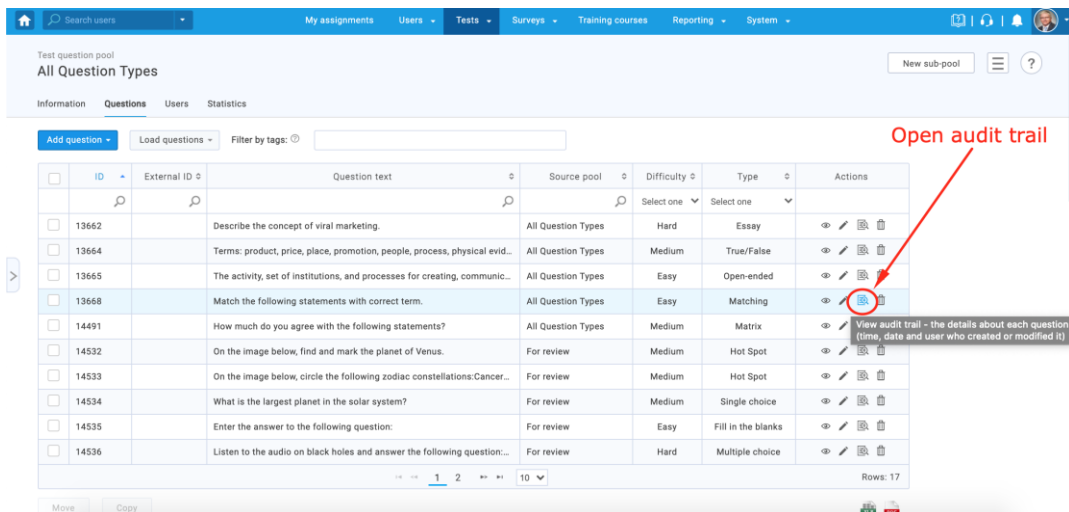

The current changelog allows you to track:

- Who changed the questions?
- When did the modification happen?

The improved functionality will allow you also to:

- Track what modification was applied
- Revert the changes

To preview the changelog, a user should select the audit trail icon and examine the information from a pop-up dialog.

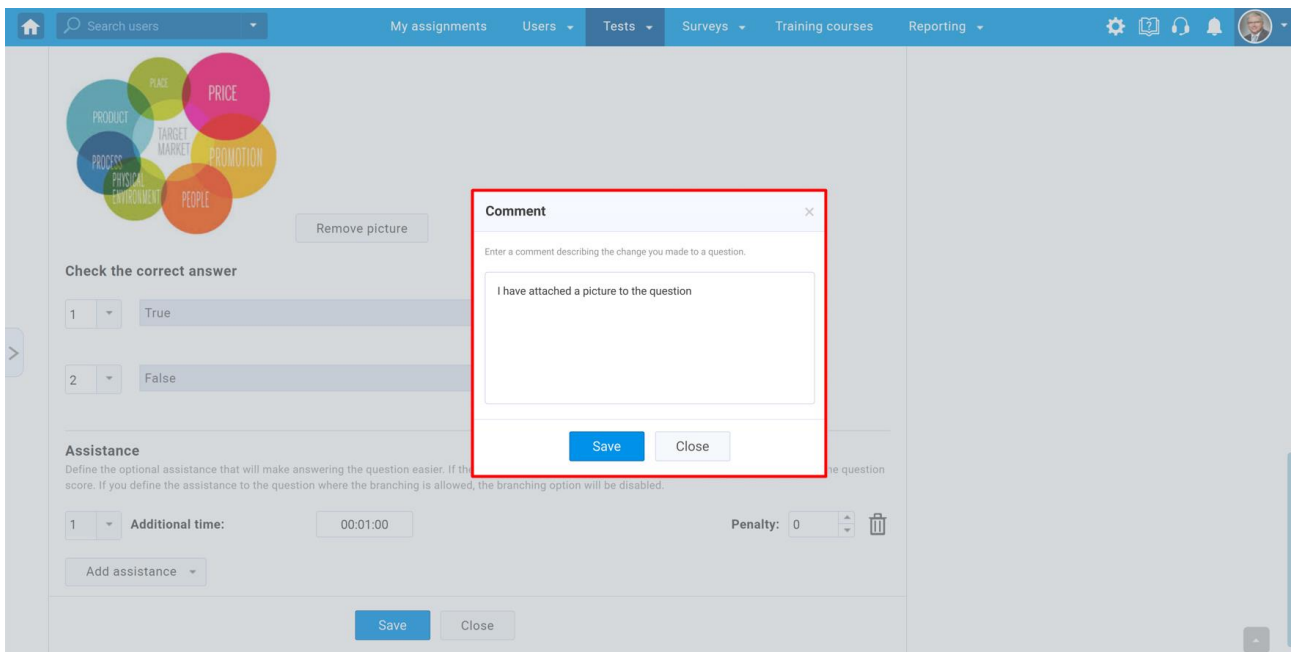

2.1 Improvements

2.1.1 Comments

In the first phase, the changelog will be improved by adding the Comment field.

This field will appear after you try to save the question you edited.

In the image below, you can see a conceptual flow. The Comment field will appear as a textual field in the confirmation dialog after selecting the Save button.

Once saved, the comment will be visible in the changelog (audit trail).
